I put one in a dark part of a hallway and I am having so much fun playing with it. I am going to put the other one behind a big plant after the Christmas tree comes down. I am going to buy one for a friend of mine for Christmas. I was so impressed with the packaging! It took me a good 15 minutes to unwrap it all...Very versatile and I am so pleased!Paul N.This is one of those products on social media that involves taking a bit of a chance - it looks too good to be true. Very low profile and great accent. I bought a few of them. One for an office with a dark corner and it looks so good and lights up the area so nicely that I moved my desk to that spot. For the other two, we have a very large open concept first floor. I put one in opposite corners where we have large plants and it makes our room look even larger. Nice accent for the plants too. Beautiful!KentHad my doubts but the sample pics were too cool not to give it a try and honestly, it looks just as good in person.
